The New York State Department of Health does not file and cannot record marriages which occur outside of New York State. This does not mean that such a marriage is not recognized by New York State. Generally, marriages which occur in accordance with the laws and regulations of another state or country are recognized under New York State law. However, for information about the acceptability of a marriage license obtained outside of New York State for specific purposes (such as changing your name on a driver license or social security card) you should contact the appropriate agency.
